Announcement On Ruhr Coal Program Near

Report Final Agreement Is Reached On Plan To Raise Production

FIRST SMALL STEP ON MARSHALL PLAN

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Final agreement on the U. S.-British talks of raising Ruhr coal production today was reported reached over the weekend, initiating what is the first small step in carrying out the Marshall plan.

An announcement on details is expected to be made later today or tomorrow. They are understood to provide:

- Probable Provisions
1. Better housing, food and working conditions for the miners themselves.
 2. Improved mechanical equipment, installed on the advice of skilled American coal production experts.
 3. Improved means of transportation to get coal away from the Ruhr to areas vitally needing it to increase Europe's production of capital goods.

Further Announcement

The coal agreement is to be followed rapidly by further announcements both on the Marshall plan itself and on steps which may have to be taken if Europe is not to collapse economically before the proposal can become effective.

The conference in Paris are reported to have agreed on some modifications of their original plans during the recent flying visit there by George F. Kennon, head of Secretary of State Marshall's foreign policy planning board.

Estimates Sealed Down

Last reports from Paris indicated that the 16-power conference there had sealed down their estimates of minimum needs to twenty billion dollars, still believed too much for the American purse to stand. Even if scaled down to fifteen billion dollars for the four year period, officials still foresaw a heavy task in selling it to Congress, particularly in an election year.

Just how the task of salesmanship will be taken up appears uncertain. The domestic political task, it is believed, will have to await the word of President Truman. And it is expected that it will take him between 10 days and two weeks before he reaches United States shores after leaving Brazil.

Pa Newc Observes

Pa News noticed during a drive that many apple and peach trees in Lawrence county are loaded down with fruit. In some instances limbs are broken and in others the growers have propped the limbs up with poles.

Old Man Summer continues to hang on steadfastly in this area. Real summer weather conditions were evident over the week end, and today, with little indication of any change in the immediate future.

Travelling around Lawrence county's highways and roads, it is really amazing the number of small new homes that are in the course of construction.

Mrs. Anthony Walzer, 114 Balph avenue, reports to Pa News the finding of six blossoms with leaves on an apple tree in their yard. Fruit was picked from the early apple tree in July.

Miss America, '47

Lovely Barbara Jo Walker, 'Miss Memphis' in the annual Atlantic City beauty pageant, sits on her throne, bedecked in her royal robes after being almost unanimously chosen 'Miss America of 1947'. 'Miss Minnesota', Elaine Mary Campbell of Minneapolis, won second place, followed by 'Miss Canada', blonde Margaret Marshall of Toronto.

Report Over 300 Killed In India

(BULLETIN)
NEW DELHI, Sept. 8.—(INS)—At least 300 persons were believed killed today in a bloody pitched battle between Hindus and Moslems within a mile of the heart of New Delhi.

Some unofficial estimates placed the death toll at 400.

Heavy reinforcement of troops aided by police herded hysterical civilians from the riot area which was littered with carcasses of horses and cattle as well as human bodies.

Plane In Crash Landing; Pilot Escapes Injury

Robert Colbert, a student pilot, of Gardner, crash landed his plane Sunday afternoon but was able to walk away from the wreck. The crash landing occurred directly across the highway from the entrance to the Sylvan Heights Golf course Sunday afternoon, September 7, near six o'clock.

PT 19 "Primary Trainer"

The plane had the left wing smashed, the propeller blades broken, the landing gear torn off, and the tail injured. Colbert had a slight bruise above his nose.

Colbert said he had been flying for a little time and was at 3,000 feet when he felt the plane going down. He said he did not know what the trouble was and decided to land at Port Shenango. As he came in to land he said the plane would not go down properly and he kept on going.

Hits Clump of Trees

Paralleling the Ellwood City highway beyond the port are electric wire lines and at the height he was flying Colbert felt sure he would hit the wires. He banked the plane and the wing hit a clump of trees. Several saplings were uprooted and the wing crumpled.

Roy Snyder, of the Penn Aero Service, owner of the plane said the accident was caused when Colbert overshoot the landing field at Port Shenango. "The plane was in proper working condition," said he. "It was merely a case of a pilot overshooting his field."

From the appearance of the plane the damage can be repaired without too much expense.

BLAST KILLS 17

MADRID, Sept. 8.—(INS)—Military authorities today pressed an investigation into a gunpowder explosion near Alcala de Henares, Spain, which took at least 17 lives last night.

Twenty soldiers on guard at the time of the violent explosion are missing and authorities believe they have been blown to bits in the blast which tore away the entire hill.

The tragedy occurred a little short of three weeks after 153 persons were killed in a torpedo and mine factory explosion outside of Cadiz, Spain.

Assign Pastors For Methodist Churches Here

Several Changes Are Made In Pastorates In New Castle And County

NEW PASTOR FOR FIRST METHODIST

Several changes in Methodist pastorates of Lawrence County were announced by Bishop James L. Straughn, Sunday, when the annual Erie conference closed in Meadville.

Rev. Burr R. McKnight who has been the pastor of First Methodist church is transferred to Reynoldsville, Pa., and is succeeded here by Rev. James Gaiser of Westfield, N. Y. W. A. Bugbee who has been at Mahoning Methodist church goes to Westfield, N. Y., and in his place, Rev. John L. Petrie comes to Mahoning. Rev. Petrie is a former pastor of Grace M. E. here, and at the time of the consolidation of Grace with Epworth was assistant pastor at Epworth for several months.

Other Changes

Rev. John A. Petzer who has been at New Wilmington church goes to Mayville, N. Y., and in his place Rev. George A. Meyers comes to New Wilmington from Emlenton. Merle Weaver, a student at Grove City College is assigned to Pulaski and King's Chapel. Rev. Jack Boyd who has been at Edinburg is transferred to Wampum and Rev. K. T. Yahu who has been at Wampum goes to East Claire.

Rev. George R. D. Braun of Epworth, Rev. Owen Shields of Croton, Rev. F. P. Sulmonetti of Christ Methodist, Rev. E. E. Shaffer of Simpson and Rev. J. N. Holder of Savannah are returned to the same pastorates.

Returns To Pastorate

Rev. D. J. Blasdel, formerly of Mahoning but who has been superintendent of the Cribbs Memorial Home at Conneautville goes back into the active pastorate at Emlenton-Poxburg-St. Petersburg, and is

Report Anderson Not Desirous Of Heading Party

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(INS)—President Truman wants Agriculture Secretary Clinton P. Anderson as the new Democratic national chairman but the cabinet officer's reluctance to shift has raised the names of two other possible choices.

Presidential intimates said today this much is certain:

No final decision on a successor to chairman Robert E. Hannegan, who also is postmaster general, will be made now until Mr. Truman returns to Washington from Rio de Janeiro.

The alternates to Anderson in the chairmanship jockeying are Sen. James H. McGrath of Rhode Island and Navy Secretary Designated John L. Sullivan, of New Hampshire.

Nearly 800 Attend Family Reunion

EAST GREENVILLE, Pa., Sept. 8.—(INS)—The Kolbs and Kulp and the Culp should know each other very well by now.

More than 800 members of the Kolb-Kulp-Culp Family Association staged their 20th annual reunion at East Greenville Park, Montgomery county.

A Lentenward park preached Rev. E. Bryan Musselman delivered the principal address. The Landsdale Community chorus rendered selections.

ORDER PALESTINE STRIKE

JERUSALEM, Sept. 8.—(INS)—A two-hour general strike of Palestine's Jewry was ordered today in protest against the disembarkation of the "Exodus 1947" refugees in Hamburg.

The strike will begin at 3 p. m.

New Coalition Cabinet Takes Office In Greece

ATHENS, Sept. 8.—(INS)—A new coalition cabinet, headed by Liberal Premier Themistocles Sophoulis, is attempting today to unite Greece for a massive effort to crush guerrilla resistance to the Athens government.

The new government was sworn in last night in the presence of King Paul.

Administrators Oath

Archbishop Dimitrios Damaskinos, primate of Greece, administered the oath to the 10 Liberal and 13 Populist (Royalist) ministers who agreed to serve in the Sophoulis cabinet.

Formation of the representative regime was considered a triumph of United States diplomacy in Greece, where 300 million American dollars are being spent to rehabilitate the nation and halt communism.

Swearing-in of the new cabinet came shortly after Loy Henderson, U. S. State department "trouble shooter," left Athens by air for Washington. He had negotiated with Sophoulis and Populist Leader Constantinos Tsaldaris for more than a week.

Ends Political Crisis

The ceremony brought to an end one of Greece's most serious political crisis since the nation's liberation.

One of the key agreements reached among Greek factions to

President Is Aboard Battleship Missouri On Return From Brazil

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
ABOARD THE U. S. MISSOURI, Sept. 8.—The United States' giant battleship — "The Missouri" — steamed leisurely northward today, enabling President Truman to relax after his busy six-day visit in Brazil.

The President decided shortly after boarding the warship for the homeward journey that it will be a non-stop voyage.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross told newsmen:

"We are going home—nowhere else."

Present plans call for the ship to reach Hampton Roads, off Norfolk, Va., on the morning of September 19. Mr. Truman's party then will transfer to the presidential yacht "Williamsburg", reaching Washington the following morning.

If necessary, the trip can be made in nine days.

In deciding to go directly home, the President passed up a chance to visit Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. He expects to make a special journey to these islands, though, either next month or in November.

Mr. Truman is understood to have decided that his visit to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands should be

Report Break In Rail Strike Is Imminent

(BULLETIN)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 8.—(INS)—A break in the four-day-old strike of operating employees of the Union railroad, which has shut down four major mills of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corp., was imminent today.

A source close to the negotiating committee said "real progress" has been made in talks between brotherhood representatives and the company.

The effect of the walkout already was being felt in Pittsburgh area fabricating plants dependent upon a steady flow of steel to remain in operation.

Call Meeting Today

The 1800 operating employees of the Union railroad, a U. S. Steel subsidiary, meanwhile, tentatively called another meeting for today in an effort to reach an agreement with the corporations.

In two meetings yesterday, no progress was made. The union stood pat on its original demand for a 50-cent hourly "package" boost, which included better vacation schedules and other benefits.

The postwar steel shortage has

Blackout Imposed

A blackout as complete as that of wartime was imposed in all homes in the towns. This morning thousands of workers left for their job with a cold breakfast or none at all.

The strikes already have cost the nation some 350,000 tons of vitally-needed coal and have led to a gradually-spreading shutdown of industries.

Attlee To Meet British Cabinet On Vital Issues

LONDON, Sept. 8.—(INS)—Prime Minister Attlee consulted with government leaders today in preparation for tomorrow's cabinet meeting when the critical Grimethorpe strike and other pressing matters will be taken up.

Attlee began consultations shortly after returning from a vacation in North Wales.

Besides the Grimethorpe coal walkout, the agenda for the cabinet session includes:

1. Approval of the board of trade chairman Sir Stafford Cripps' plan to stimulate exports 40 per cent in the next nine months.
2. Decision on the policy to be followed on Palestine at the U. N. general assembly beginning Sept. 16.
3. Examination of Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Dalton's proposals to be presented to U. S. Treasury Secretary Snyder, now en route to England.

Fifteen Nurses Graduate Tonight

Class Of U. S. Cadet Nurses Corps Completes Training; Exercises At Ben Franklin

The conferring of diplomas to 15 graduate nurses of the New Castle Hospital School of Nursing will take place this evening, at Ben Franklin Junior High School at 8 o'clock.

This class will be one of the classes that entered during the war, and were graduated in the United States Army Cadet Corps.

The program for the evening will include addresses by Dr. John B. Barrett, staff physician, and Rev. Fr. Gerard O. F. M., Cap., of St. Fidelis Seminary, Herman, Pa.

Rev. Fr. Francis King of St. Mary's will give the invocation and benediction.

Soloist will be Margaret Marie Ezze.

Sister Lawrence Mary, new director of nurses of the hospital, is in charge of the final arrangements.

BESSEMER BOY HURT IN FALL FROM PONY

Nine-year-old Larry Shogen of Main street, Bessemer, was admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital over the week-end, following a fall from his pony.

Larry received lacerations of the scalp and abrasions of the left elbow.

Call 4000

Election boards in city and county precincts are again asked to call The News, phone No. 4000, Tuesday night, as soon as any returns are available in their precincts.

Co-operation of the election precinct boards has been excellent in previous elections, and is anticipated again on Tuesday evening.

Efforts of the election boards Tuesday night will aid in earlier information on how the election is going, and will be a general benefit to the citizens of the city and county.

So, remember, Call 4000 with returns as early as possible.

Fear Mine Strike In Britain May Paralyze Nation

LONDON, Sept. 8.—(INS)—British coal authorities expressed the fear today that unless the "nucleus" strike of Grimethorpe miners is settled in a few days sympathy walkouts will paralyze the nation's minefields.

The decision of strikers in seven of the 54 idyllic Yorkshire pits to return to work today did little to dissolve the pessimism over the situation.

Reject Appeal

The Grimethorpe miners yesterday rejected a government appeal to return to work. The government proposed that three of their own strikers be named to adjudicate the grievance against working an extra two feet of coal seam.

Gas supplies in 15 Yorkshire communities were cut as a result of the strike and the wave of sympathy walkouts.

Abandon Plan For Korea Parley

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(INS)—The state department today abandoned plans for a big four nation conference on the Korean situation following the receipt of a note from Russia declining to participate at this time.

The United States proposed a meeting of the diplomatic chiefs of Great Britain, Russia and China with state department officials for this afternoon in the hope of achieving a plan for the creation of a provisional government for all Korea.

Rev. R. B. Withers Given Year's Leave

Rev. R. B. Withers, pastor of the Newport Methodist church for the past year, has been granted a year's leave of absence from active ministry, in order that he may enter special evangelistic work.

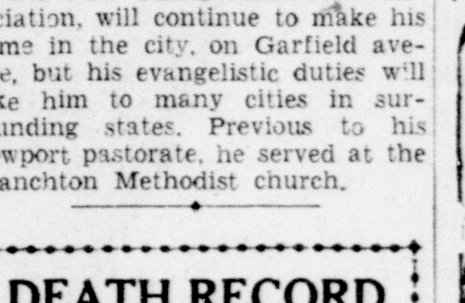

Rev. Withers, who is also secretary of the New Castle Ministerial Association, will continue to make his home in the city, on Garfield avenue, but his evangelistic duties will take him to many cities in surrounding states. Previous to his Newport pastorate, he served at the Branchton Methodist church.

MAN MEETS DEATH ON ERIE HIGHWAY

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 8.—(INS)—Frank Torok, 43, was killed and his son, Frank Jr., 11, was seriously injured when the truck in which they were riding overturned after swerving an automobile on a highway near Erie.

Police said they were holding William A. Snow, driver of the truck.

City And County Candidates Will Be Named Tuesday

Interest In Primary Takes Spurt In Eleventh Hour
—May Boost Turnout

SPECIAL ELECTIONS HOLDING INTEREST

Politics were at the boiling point over the week end in New Castle, as candidates and supporters tried to compensate for a month or more of lethargy. Many meetings were held over the county Saturday night and Sunday, endorsements of candidates were made by a number of groups and the candidates came up to the finish line in a blaze of activity.

Interest in the Republican nomination for mayor continued to increase and it seems likely that the interest in this race will bring out more voters than at first was thought likely.

Ward Fights

In several wards there are aldermen to be elected and this will bring out the vote in the wards interested, it is thought. In Shenango and Wayne township, South New Castle Boro and North Beaver township special elections are being held and this should increase the vote.

Shenango, Wayne and South New Castle Boro have local option fights. North Beaver township is voting upon a special half mill tax to help support the volunteer fire company organized there.

Most of the votes tomorrow will be in the Republican party. The Democrats have no fights except in county commissioner where there are three candidates running for two places. For mayor and council (Continued on Page Two)

A.F.L. Executive Council To Meet

Expected To Draft Program To Be Followed On New Labor
Law

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—(INS)—The 15-man executive council of the American Federation of Labor which establishes policy for more than seven and a half million members in the United States and Canada convenes in Chicago today for its pre-convention session.

The council's agenda is a discussion on whether council members should agree to sign affidavits attesting they are not communists as required by the Taft-Hartley law which went into effect Aug. 22.

The National Labor Relations Board has informed the AFL that its officers must sign the affidavits before it can make use of the services of the NLRB.

Rev. H. Redmond Will Be Installed On Tuesday Night

Dr. C. E. McCartney, Pittsburgh,
Will Be Preacher At Mahoningtown Church Service

On Tuesday evening, at Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, Rev. Howard A. Redmond will be installed as pastor at 8 o'clock EST. Rev. Redmond has been serving the local church full time since July. He is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles, and Princeton Theological Seminary. At his recent graduation from the latter school, he won the seminary preaching prize.

The preacher of the evening will be Dr. Clarence E. McCartney, pastor of First Presbyterian church, Pittsburgh. Dr. McCartney is one of the nation's foremost evangelists and preachers, and the author of many religious works. He is also an eminent historian, and known as an authority on the American Civil War period, and has written two books on Abraham Lincoln. In 1924 Dr. McCartney was elected moderator of General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, U.S.A., being nominated by his friend, William Jennings Bryan.

Other ministers to take part in the installation service will be Dr. David C. Whitmarsh, a former pastor of the Mahoningtown church; Dr. John Orr, acting president Westminster college; Dr. Robert M. Patterson of this city, and Rev. William S. Blair of Sharpsville, moderator of Shenango Presbytery. The public is welcomed to the service, which will be in the church sanctuary, corner North Cedar and Cherry streets, and to the informal reception afterward.

EARLY NIGHT BALL GAMES

Night baseball is not a new idea. A night game was played in Port Wayne Ind., in 1883. The diamond was lighted by 17 lamps, suspended on masts. The game lasted only seven innings, but a total of 30 runs had been scored.

assure formation of the coalition provides for a new amnesty offer to guerrilla fighters if they lay down their weapons.

Leaders were hopeful that the new conditions will make the guerrillas more receptive to the amnesty than they were to one offered several months ago by the Maximinos government.

Foremost among these conditions are the broad basis of the new government, the pledge to call a fair general election as soon as conditions permit, and the exclusion of former Public Order Minister Gen. Napoleon Zervas from the new government. Zervas' extreme rightist policies were one of the main causes for the collapse of the Maximinos cabinet.

Between the fall of the Maximinos government and yesterday's induction of a new cabinet, Tsaldaris had headed an all-rightist government which lasted scarcely a week.

more than just a mere side trip, as it would be if he were stopping off there now.

Views Long Parade

The President boarded the Missouri after viewing a three-hour long parade marking Brazil's Independence day.

Units of sailors and marines from the Missouri were given the honor of leading the 35,000 Brazilian troops participating in the colorful march.

Once aboard the battleship for the homeward voyage, Mr. Truman walked the deck for a time. He wore a new yachting cap given him by Gold Cup Regatta officials in Washington.

Showing newsmen the cap, the President remarked: "I've got to have a six-star cap to get ahead of Adm. Leahy's five-star one."

MINER DIES OF BURNS

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., Sept. 8.—(INS)—Wade Deppie, 30, a coal miner, died last night from burns suffered when a gasoline tank of a power shovel caught fire at a strip mining operation near Anita last Friday.

Eleven other miners, who were showered with flaming gasoline, are in critical condition in Adrian hospital.

Deaths Of The Day

Harry W. McCurdy

Harry W. McCurdy, aged 71 years, 225 Scott street, died Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Jameson Memorial hospital. Mr. McCurdy, who was removed to the hospital Saturday morning when he became ill, had been in his usual health previous to that time.

Born in Harlansburg, Lawrence county, Pa., October 14, 1875, he was a son of the late Robert and Nancy Hilgar McCurdy. He was the last survivor of his family. The deceased, a resident all of his life of Lawrence county, was retired after being employed for many years by the Lawrence Laundry company as a stationary engineer.

Polls Open At 7 A. M.

In the office of the Bureau of Elections, Chief Clerk William A. Eakin said the machinery for the election was all set up. Precinct election boards have their supplies, and the polls will open at seven o'clock EST Tuesday morning. They will close at 8 p. m. EST.

Weather indications point to a fair day for the election, which may cut the rural vote. Farmers often-times are forced to forego elections in order to catch up with their work.

Whatever the weather the primary election goes on at seven Tuesday morning. The campaign started out in a genteel, almost lethargic fashion. It finished up with a lot of verbal fireworks.

FAITH

USE JUDGMENT

Tomorrow is Election Day. The day that the citizens of the City and County hire men to work for them. Every voter should vote, if health permits. If he doesn't, he should be fined, not less than $10.00.

A voter, in voting, should use the same judgment as the business man and the manufacturers do, when they employ help. One of the things they should do, is to select, as far as they know, the best man for each office, regardless of his politics, not because he is backed by any certain clique or party, or any organization of any kind. Neither should he vote for any candidate, if he has any proof that he or his backers are buying any votes, as a man going into office, by purchasing votes, will not have the welfare of the people of the community at heart.

Again, the voter should vote for men in public offices, who will do their duty, as the law requires them, and fills his office to the best of his ability, with no fear from the voters of the community.

Families are assured of the greatest possible value for every dollar expended. Regardless of the price one selects to pay, the funeral services we provide will be distinctive and complete.

HARTLAND-DENNISON WEDDING IN CHAPEL

Dahlias and white chrysanthemums before an embankment of palms and ferns decorated the altar of Harbison chapel, Grove City college, Grove City, for the wedding Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock of Miss Janet M. Hartland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hartland of 226 Boyles avenue, and Donald J. Dennison, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Dennison, of Falls Creek.

Rev. John L. Robison of Altoona, uncle of the bridegroom, officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of ivory satin, princess style, trimmed with ivory lace and with a fingertip veil of ivory illusion caught by a plaited satin tiara. Her bouquet was white roses centered with an orchid. She wore the traditional "something old, something new."

Miss Betty Drio, as maid of honor, wore a hyacinth blue nylon chiffon gown with a panel of ruffles down the back of the skirt, and carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses and a tiara of the same flowers in her hair. As bridesmaids Mrs. James Hartland and Mrs. Robert Miller, sister of the groom, wore orchid nylon chiffon gowns styled like the maid of honor's, and carried bouquets of purple and white chrysanthemums and yellow roses.

J. Irving Stinemman of Johnstown was best man, and ushers were James Hartland, Robert Miller of Butler and William J. Kelly of Arlington, Va.

Preceding the ceremony Fred L. Riley sang "O Promise Me" and "Because," and during the ceremony "Intermezzo" was played softly.

A reception for 135 guests at the Penn Grove hotel in Grove City followed the ceremony. Floral decorations were carried out in yellow, purple and white. Mrs. Orville Brown of New Castle and Mrs. Robert F. McDowell of Altoona poured.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennison left on a wedding trip to the New England states. On their return they will take up residence in Brookville.

Mrs. Dennison is a graduate of Grove City college and a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. Mr. Dennison graduated from Grove City college and from Dickinson Law school in June.

KIRK-McCLINTOCK WEDDING SATURDAY

Miss Oletta Kirk, daughter of Mrs. Peter Sakelaris of Istanbul, Turkey, and Howard Mannery Kirk of Havana, Cuba, was married to James L. McClintock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. McClintock of 423 Leasure avenue, this city, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Sept. 6, in the First Presbyterian church.

Members of the immediate families and a few friends were present for the wedding ceremony, at which Dr. Robert F. Galbreath officiated. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Marguerite Kirk, of Newark, N. J., and by Miss Senta Loesch, of Philadelphia. Katharine Effie Kirk was flower girl.

Harry E. McClintock, Jr., was his brother's best man, and Charles Kirk and Stephen Polley were ushers.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the wedding party and members of the family at the Manse in New Wilmington.

For the present the newlyweds will make their home at 423 East Leasure avenue.

Mrs. McClintock graduated from New Castle high school and attended Emerson college in Boston, Mass. She recently returned from a visit with her mother in Turkey. Mr. McClintock, who also graduated from New Castle high school and was recently discharged from the U. S. Army, is employed at the Bruce Electric company.

LUNCHEON BRIDGE FOR RECENT BRIDE

For the pleasure of Mrs. William J. Semler, the former Mary Lou Fenati, Miss Ruth Semler entertained Saturday afternoon at a luncheon-bridge at a tearoom on the Wilmington road.

Places for one o'clock luncheon were marked by miniature umbrella place favors.

Three tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon, with prizes awarded to Mrs. Paris Shoaff, III, and Mrs. H. M. Fenati. After luncheon a shower of lovely gifts of a miscellaneous nature was presented to the bride of August 28.

Mr. and Mrs. William Semler have taken up residence at 413 East Leasure avenue.

MINTEER-CRABBE WEDDING SATURDAY

In the New Wilmington U. P. church Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, before an altar setting of white gladioli, palms and ferns, flanked by lighted branched candelabra, at a double ring ceremony, Miss Margaret Louise Minter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Minter of 568 Neshannock avenue, New Wilmington, became the bride of Harry Norman Crabbe, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crabbe of 768 Prindle street, Sharon.

Rev. R. P. MacDonald officiated at the open church ceremony.

The bride wore a white satin wedding gown, entrain, with a sweetheart neckline, a fingertip length veil and carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. She was attended by her sister, Miss Jane Minter, as maid of honor, and Mrs. Louis Schueler of Pittsburgh, matron of honor. They were both gowned in powder blue faille dresses fashioned with a bustle effect in back. Their matching hats were of net and they carried bouquets of white gladioli and pink roses.

Robert Smith of New York was best man and ushers were Howard Karr, Bud Lloyd and Charles Warrender, all of Sharon, and George Barber of Philadelphia.

Soloist, Miss Jane Sheppard, of Pittsburgh, sang "Because" and "I Loved, It Morn." Miss Helen Francis of New Wilmington was organist.

Following the ceremony there was a reception for 100 guests in the home of the brides parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Crabbe left on a wedding trip by plane to Washington, D. C. and New York City.

They will make their future home in State College until Mr. Crabbe completes his final year of study at State college, where he is a member of Sigma Phi Sigma fraternity. Mrs. Crabbe attended Westminster college and is a graduate of State college. She is a member of Chi-Omega sorority. Mr. Crabbe is a graduate of Sharon high school and Mrs. Crabbe of New Wilmington high school.

SUE ARMSTRONG FETED IN DENVER

Known Harvard Armstrong, widely known vocal artist, of this city, who is the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Whitney of Denver, Colo., has been honored at a number of functions, dinners, teas, and luncheons, during her stay in the West.

Among these was a studio party given by Mrs. Blanche Da Costa, former grand opera star in Germany, for the visiting artist who graciously gave a delightful program.

Mrs. Armstrong spent a weekend in Estes Park and another at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs while away.

In Evergreen, Colo., a dinner was given for her by the noted composer, pianist, and conductor, Rudolph Ganz, of Chicago. And another dinner was given for her by Mrs. D. B. Fairley, of Seattle, Wash., who is visiting in Denver.

On Thursday she attended a large tea at the Denver Country club, and in the evening a cocktail party given by Henry E. Sachs, conductor of the Denver Municipal band.

On Saturday, she was the guest of Warren Whitney at the annual picnic in the mountains given by the Princeton club of Denver.

Mrs. Armstrong will return to her home here September 10, stopping off in Chicago en route.

LOCAL WOMAN WEDS YOUNGSTOWN MAN

Of interest here is the marriage of Margaret Anderson, formerly of this city, and John Carr of Youngstown, O., on August 28 in Youngstown.

Rev. Maynard Stull, pastor of the Lutheran church of Youngstown, performed the single ring ceremony at 4:30 p. m. in the church in the presence of the immediate families and close friends.

The bride chose her sisters, Miss Gloria Ann Phillips of Youngstown and Mrs. Henry McClay of New Wilmington as her attendants. Henry McClay, brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man.

At 6 p. m. a wedding dinner was served to the immediate families at an inn in Youngstown. The couple left later for a trip through the New England states and upon their return, September 15, they will reside in their newly furnished home in Youngstown.

Mrs. Carr was formerly a supervisor in the casting shop of the Shenango Pottery in this city, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, formerly of this city.

Busy Fingers Club

Busy Fingers club members met recently at the home of Mrs. Jennie Navarra, West State street, for their annual corn roast.

An informal time was enjoyed, and capturing the door prize was Mrs. Minnie Calazza and a contest prize was won by Mrs. Jennie Venditto.

September 16, is the meeting with Mrs. Mary Ross, Summit street.

TOMORROW THE DAY OF OPPORTUNITY

The campaign is now over, I have tried to show the people of our city the things I stand for, without erecting any smoke screens to hide facts.

Today I have mailed a letter to the homes of all Republicans in the city in which I mention many of the things I have in mind to make New Castle a better city in which to live and train our children. In this letter I have lived up to my promise "that I have not and will not attack the character nor the reputation of any candidate in this campaign". I have however called your attention to things that should not be and things that should be done.

I have tried to make the voters conscious of the political conditions in our city today and ask you to remedy this situation at the polls tomorrow. I know how the heat has been turned on, I know how the pressure has been applied, and to those who have been subject to this treatment I say:

IF YOU ARE AN AMERICAN CITIZEN

YOU WILL VOTE AGAINST SUCH PRACTICES WHEN YOU ARE BEHIND THAT CURTAIN IN THE VOTING BOOTH TOMORROW BY VOTING FOR EARL R. WIMER FOR YOUR MAYOR THE NEXT FOUR YEARS.

I WOULD BE HAPPY AND VERY PROUD OF THE OPPORTUNITY TO INJECT SOME NEW IDEAS INTO THE OPERATION OF OUR CITY, MY CITY, AND THE SERVICES IT SHOULD RENDER ITS CITIZENS, WITH JUSTICE TO ALL AND BIGOTRY TOWARD NONE.

IF THE CITY OF NEW CASTLE IS TO BE A CLEAN AND PROGRESSIVE CITY, THEN, TOMORROW SHOULD BE A MEMORABLE DATE, THE DATE OF NEW CASTLE'S "BOSTON TEA PARTY". I DO NOT HAVE THE FINANCIAL RESOURCES TO "BUY" THIS ELECTION.

EARL R.

WIMER for MAYOR

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

A New York chain of restaurants wishes that its patrons would stop outfitting their apartments and summer bungalows with cutlery filched from its various establishments.

According to a report just published, 206,436 pieces of "silver" disappeared during the last year, the total loss amounting to $33,432.

Since this chain still serves coffee at five cents a cup, it beseeches its customers not to be guided by that swanky night club which puts expensive ashtrays on the tables, with its name in large type on them, with the specific hope that the clients will take them home and thus advertise the place to their visiting friends.

That night club, says the restaurant chain, charges fifty cents for coffee and can well afford to lose an ashtray with every order of mocha. Furthermore, since the night club serves very little coffee the loss in ashtrays is not very large, as consumers of hard liquor (which sells at a dollar or more a drink) are not very much interested in ashtrays.

Have you any "filched" silver in your home?

Have you any Pullman towels or towels from various hotels you visited?

Well, I have, and I don't want you to raise your hands in horror, when you hear that the nice Erich Brandeis, who is supposed to be such a good boy, has just as much of the collector's instinct in him as most other people.

I remember when I first got married and things were pretty tough, swiping towels from hotels and Pullman cars was considered perfectly proper and came in very handy.

Nowadays, of course, I don't do that any more.

Nowadays we have towels with our initials on them (at least in the powder room), and the other day a visitor actually had the nerve to use one of them.

But when I first got married I had towels from the Hotel St. Francis in San Francisco and from Haddon Hall in Atlantic City and from the Blackstone in Chicago.

One of my proudest possessions was a cup and saucer from The Hotel St. George in Bermuda and some silverware from the Waldorf-Astoria.

I never bothered about cheap places. In those days I couldn't let my friends know that I patronized that kind.

And, as a newspaper reporter I got enough swank assignments to equip my home with some pretty nice accessories. Once I tried to get away with some bed sheets and pillow cases from the Biltmore in Los Angeles, but my suitcase wasn't large enough.

However, my wife has pretty well broken me of the habit, anyway. She thinks that people in our station of life don't have to steal things. We can afford to patronize Woolworth's.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

"I am planning a small, early October wedding, attended by only relatives of both families and a few friends. Will you kindly answer the following questions: (1) I am a brunette desirous of wearing a light or medium-blue zabardine suit. Is this shade suitable at this time of the year? Some of my friends say it is a Spring rather than a Fall shade. (2) May I wear a purple orchid with this shade? I do not care for white orchids. (3) What do you think of a white blouse and black accessories—hat, shoes, gloves and bag? (4) Must I pay the soloist and the organist or will gifts suffice? (5) We shall have a small reception at five o'clock for both families only at the home of my grandparents. Will punch and cake be sufficient? (6) Must we have ushers?

Answer: (1) Blue is correct for an informal bride at any season of the year. (2) A purple orchid corsage is most attractive with blue. (3) Your accessories as outlined are perfectly correct but I suggest a tiny feathered hat exactly matching the color of your suit . . . black shoes and gloves. (4) If the singer and the organist are professionals, hired for the purpose, pay them for their services. If they are friends who will extend their services because of your friendship, gifts will suffice. (5) If possible, you should, at that hour, serve something more substantial, such as a buffet supper. If this is not possible, you may of course serve punch and cake. (6) You should have only two attendants—a maid-of-honor and a best man. Ushers in an informal wedding are necessary only when the size of the church or the number of guests require them.

Question: When a child is invited to a party, should the mother who must take the child, go in with her and remain for the party?

Answer: She should take the child to the door, leave her and call for her when it is time for the party to end. She should not go in and stay, unless previously invited to do so by the small hostess' mother.

Speaking Of "Gremlins"

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

'READING' FROM MEMORY

When Barbara's mother irons or mends or works at other stationary jobs, Barbara brings her book and points to a picture in it. Then with one look the mother knows how the rhyme or story goes. This is all Barbara needs to make her suppose she is reading.

Perhaps you have been Barbara's mother. After you have read over and over your little child's favorite rhymes or brief stories from the picture page you, like the child, come to associate each picture with the appropriate rhyme or story. The book may be upside down to you, since the child likes to face you then.

Without An Error

Of course, your little child wants you to repeat these gems without an error and will correct you if you make a mistake. You may have no trouble with the rhymes, but unless you have used some effort you may not have remembered some of the folk tales word for word. I think I must have read Cinderella to my daughter before she was three several hundred times but I never could say it by heart verbatim. My trouble was that while I read and the eager little listener was being thrilled at what she heard my mind was often far away. Of course, I am not a mother. You will read more intelligently to your tot, no doubt.

You may have observed your little child not more than two or three saying to herself aloud the rhymes, even entire stories word for word while looking at the related pictures. The child supposes, perhaps, that she is reading. Thus she may often "read" to her doll or toy animal or imaginary playmate for many minutes at a stretch.

Prompting The Child
For the mother, while busily engaged at some housework, to give the tyke the words which go with the pictures which this child points to, is an easy and lovely way for her to be companionable with the little persons and to afford him abundant happiness. Besides, the youngster may be satisfied to wait a long while before the mother finds time to stop and read a story.

The busy, sympathetic mother also finds time to "look at what I learner's question." She may grow a bit weary doing so at times. But if the mother really has an understanding attitude and senses the happiness and education her answer can afford the child, she will usually find it a pleasure rather than a burden to answer him.

No parent should, of course, hope to be able to answer all the questions and need not feel ashamed to say, "I don't know." If, however, she will occasionally seek the answer in an encyclopedia or by a telephone call or visit to the library the good effect will be noticeable. It is wonderful when we parents are humble learners with our children, however tiny they may be.

An expert says women's talk is slowing up. Yes, but are they stopping any sooner?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

I KNOW SOMETHING
Wouldn't this old world be better
If the folks we meet would say—

"I KNOW SOMETHING GOOD ABOUT YOU!"
And then treat us just that way?

Wouldn't it be fine and dandy,
If each handclasp warm and true
Carried with it this assurance:—
"I KNOW SOMETHING NICE ABOUT YOU!"

Wouldn't life be lots more happy,
If the Good that's in us all
Were the only thing about us
That folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't we all try the harder
Just to make the Goodness grow,—

The trend of the times is uncertain.

In Illinois a judge says one in two marriages is headed for divorce and in Alabama a judge finds a man for kissing his wife on the street.

What is a man to do when the divorce court will get him if he doesn't kiss his wife and the police court will get him if he does?

All that we can expect is that when the judge says "Who was that lady I saw you kissing with last night?" the defendant will answer "a complete stranger."

Somebody says "How can you tell that it's a man's wife he's kissing?" The best testimony on the subject is "Take a blood count . . . if his red corpuscles are sleeping it is."

But at least the trend in running off with baby sitters has halted. . . . Mother began to insist that the elopement also take the baby.

Still when you look around, you see many men and women who have been married for years and years. . . . Some to each other.

THE UNREPORTED VICTORIES

Fame and fortune get the praise.
Books and magazines and press
Tell of all the various ways
Men employ to win success.
But when all is said and done
Fame and fortune fall to few;
And there's many a victory won
Never put in public view.

None reports the home content,
Since it's everywhere exists.
Years in patient toiling spent
Miss the fame of pugilists.
In the headlines shame is told;
But there's little mention made
Of the thousands, young and old,
Who have never asked for aid.

Humble homes enriched with grace,
Love and laughter found the years.
We are told are commonplace.
So no word of them appears.
Yet by courage they are won
And by faith they are sustained;
And when all is said and done
Nothing better can be gained.

The World and the Mud Puddles

BELONGS TO CONGRESS

By indirection, it appears, the 1948 session of Congress may see a revival of an issue which for two generations figured prominently in the politics of the nation. In June of next year the law providing for reciprocal tariff agreements expires. The issue will be on the desirability of extending the powers of the President to raise or lower import duties to the extent of seventy-five per cent. The trade agreements act was originally passed in 1934 and has been twice renewed by Democratic Congresses.

When it is improbable that there will be manifest any purpose on the part of the Republican majority to revive the system of high tariffs, there is likely to be strong opposition to continuance of the executive authority which has prevailed for the past thirteen years. Two contentions may be offered in opposition.

One is that the reciprocal trade agreements thus far have not contributed seriously to the expansion of our foreign trade. The interruption of world commerce by the war prevents any reasonable estimate of foreign trade since 1939; but prior to that time, with the trade act in operation for about five years, there was notable increase in our export trade.

Violates Intent Of Constitution

Another objection is that the act violates the intent of the Constitution, which places in the hands of Congress the sole power to levy impost, excises and taxes. It is true that during the Roosevelt regime Congress deliberately abandoned the authority and handed it over to the executive, as it did in many other matters. But the levying of tariffs and the making of schedules, because it is vital to the national welfare logically should rest with the legislative branch, as the Founders intended.

It is true that self-interest makes itself felt in Congress when tariff schedules are in the making. Industries and agriculture alike are alert to safeguard themselves so far as possible against too much foreign competition. Labor organizations are concerned lest extremely low schedules on the products of other nations, where cheap labor or even slave labor—as in Russia—prevails, should result in a lowering of American production and employment.

On the other hand, the theory of the reciprocal agreement sponsors is that we must grant substantial concessions on imports from other countries, in order to enable them to buy our own products. To erect high tariff walls against the products of other nations is to invite retaliation and cut down our own trade.

We want good will from other nations, and we want a sound export trade. Congress will have to decide the best way to obtain both results.

In Earlier Days

Today engine bells at Mahoning avenue crossing perturb residents while in 1918, it was engine whistles. In fact, on April 1, 1918, city council received a complaint from a Madison avenue resident that he was annoyed by unnecessary whistling, hence council which was composed of Mayor Newell and Councilmen Burns, Horton, Shanefelt and Whaley instructed the city clerk to request the superintendent of the railroad complained of, to eliminate unnecessary whistling.

Worked On Farms
Twenty eight days later a committee called upon council to aid the World War I effort. The committee, consisting of E. F. Butler, James M. Clark, A. M. Copeland and J. C. George requested council to grant city employees one day a week during which they could labor on farms, between June 1 and September 1. Council granted the request.

Destroyed Grass
Nowadays one never hears of anyone being arrested on the West Side. In fact, according to police records, it is a place of tranquillity, but almost 30 years ago the action of some boys in the West Side park caused residents to petition council to furnish more adequate police service to stop "bad boys from destroying grass in the park." Councilman Bes Lusk referred the complaint to committee, his motion being accepted by Councilmen Miller, Dunlap, et al.

BRIDGES AND BLOOD

Bridges usually have iron in them. Sometimes they are made entirely of steel. They depend for their strength on the quality of the metal.

In concrete bridges the iron is covered up. It adds to the strength whether it can be seen or not. There is iron in blood too. It adds to the strength of the body. A person who lacks iron is pale and weak.

The iron in the blood is provided by the food. Meat is rich in iron. Other foods such as molasses, egg yolk, peas, mushrooms, bananas and beans are good sources of iron.

Inside Washington

Eisenhower Looms As No. 1 GOP Dark Horse
Democrats' V. P. Choice Could Be Senator Pepper
Radioactive War Gas Experiment

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The political straws are scurrying before the late summer breezes with the 1948 national nominating conventions 10 months distant.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who by year's end will retire to head New York City's vast Columbia university, looms large as perhaps the most important dark horse for the GOP nomination.

Ike's chances of being drafted as the Republican choice rests largely on a deadlock between the current two front runners who at the moment control the greatest number of delegates—Ohio's Bob Taft and New York's Tom Dewey.

Some observers believe that if the international situation remains acute, Ike will have a better chance at getting the GOP nod. Eisenhower himself has stoutly maintained he has no political ambitions and refuses to acknowledge himself as a member of either of the two major parties.

However, a stampede at the convention might change Ike's mind inasmuch as he once said that no man "would be presumptuous enough to say that he would not become president of the United States."

On the Democratic side of the political fence, Senator Claude Pepper of Florida is seen as casting covetous glances toward the vice presidency. Pepper has maintained that President Truman should select a running-mate who is a friend of labor. That man could well be, in the senator's mind, Pepper.

Some observers think Gov. Earl Warren of California is gaining strength, but he is reputed to be "in Dutch" with the GOP high command for refusing to run with Dewey in 1944.

Mathematically on the outside, but still a possibility is the only avowed Republican candidate—Harold Stassen, former governor of Minnesota.

AFL ADVICE—AFL General Counsel Joseph A. Padway gave his union clients varying advice on the Taft-Hartley law.

First, Padway recommended that the AFL unions fight the law and boycott the National Labor Relations Board. Later, however, he advised union officers to file non-Communist affidavits required by the new statute so they could use NLRB machinery.

AFL sources claim the switch came following the Teamsters convention in San Francisco. There, they say, Dave Beck, West Coast czar of the union, got Padway's ear and pointed out that the Teamsters would lose a lot of members in California canneries if NLRB services stopped. At any rate, a ruling came from Padway advising union officers to sign the affidavits and thereby make it possible for any union to continue the practice before the NLRB.

ATOMIC EXPERIMENTS—The atomic bomb's deadliest by-products, radioactive gases, are the subject of experimentation at the Chemical Corps school at Edgewood Arsenal, Md.

The gases could be produced by impregnating known war gases with gamma rays in an atomic furnace. But, however, before the United States would dare use such weapons, the Army would have to find means of protecting its own personnel from similar enemy attacks.

A thick wall of concrete or lead is needed to hold both alpha and gamma rays. Army experts admit this poses quite a problem in connection with any military use of radioactive gases.

The Navy, like the Army, is going ahead meanwhile with a variety of atomic tests. Ships which survived the Bikini tests are being studied in connection with development of effective means of radiological decontamination.

In View Of The News

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

Europe probably faces a cold, famine-ridden winter even should the American Congress hold a special session and hurriedly vote stopping funds in advance of the hatching Marshall Plan.

Official statements emphasize there just isn't enough food to go around. Rocketing prices in the main food reservoirs add to the chaos. Norris E. Dodd, U. S. Agriculture under-secretary, estimates that the world will have 20 million tons of grain for export this year—but 50 million is needed in deficiency countries.

Europe alone needs approximately 25 million tons of cereal imports next winter—nine million more than last winter which was marked by riots in Germany, starvation in other lands, and numerous political upheavals.

Not Enough Rain
In some parts of Norway a glass of water commands a price. There just hasn't been enough rain. The drought has plunged Scandinavia into its most disastrous crop failure in history.

Sweden has reaped just a little more than 50 per cent of its normal wheat crop. Denmark has suffered an estimated loss of 75 million dollars.

Winter freezings, followed by floods and then drought has scourged large areas of Europe. Drought also has gone heavy damage to the U. S. corn crop. Grain exports from America undoubtedly will fall off.

Britain's grave position is known generally. But this situation extends through large areas of Europe, whose cries for food increase daily.

There are five great producing areas which offer some hope—the United States, Russia, Canada, Argentina and Australia.

Officials estimate agree that the United States must cut its own eating if it hopes to avert famine elsewhere.

Can Argentina Aid?
Whether Argentina can aid greatly remains to be seen. Some reports say her farmers have planted less.

because they don't get big enough prices from the government. The government, moreover, is demanding dollars. The needy countries lack the dollars.

A record crop is expected in Australia, but not enough to balance the drought losses elsewhere. Most of Canadian export will try to bolster Britain.

That leaves Russia in a pivotal situation where political advantages can accrue from food aid.

The Soviet press says Russia will have plenty of wheat left for sale in the open market after the peasants have delivered their allotted amounts to the state and to themselves. No specific figure is given, but Poland disclosed Friday she is going to get 300,000 tons.

ROME: Rev. J. Frank Norris, Baptist minister, after conference with Pope XII: "In this world's greatest crisis, Catholics and Protestants are allies, and neither Catholics nor Protestants are compromising their own distinctive beliefs in their common war against atheistic, materialistic Communism."

WASHINGTON: Sen. Vandenberg on Congressional support of administration aid to Europe plans: "Congress intends to inform itself adequately before it takes any action. Congress is going to demand a more completely adequate presentation of facts than ever before."

Asked why he wanted to remain in jail after he had completed his sentence, a Maine man answered succinctly, "I've been reading the papers."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Vote Tomorrow!

Political observers in Lawrence County seem to be of the opinion that the vote at the primary elections tomorrow will be light. A number of reasons are assigned. People are busy, there isn't any interest, the farmers won't take time from their fields, and so it goes.

We hope the political observers are wrong. There should be a heavy vote, not only tomorrow but on every election day. The vote is the right of a free people and to abandon that right voluntarily is to invite a prohibition of it later.

The primary elections are important for it is here the candidates for the general election are selected. It is the process by which we are assumed to weed out the unfit and incompetent candidates and select the best each party offers.

It is true that interest in some races is light and in some there may be only the one candidate. But the other offices have candidates and from the list the voters should pick the best.

The newspaper offers no suggestion as to who should be nominated at the primary election tomorrow. We do urge that every voter do his duty.

GET READY FOR WINTER

Summer and early fall are the times for preparing homes for winter—with especial attention paid to the elimination of fire hazards.

One of the major causes of home fires is defective heating units, ranging all the way from oil stoves to central heating systems. Even the best of appliances become worn. Flues and chimneys become filled with soot. During the war, it was often impossible to adequately maintain heating plants due to shortages of parts and labor. There are still shortages, but not as severe as in the immediate past. The money spent will pay tremendous dividends in safety and security.

Faulty electric wiring is still a major destroyer of homes. Important repairs should be made by a qualified electrician. Frayed cords should be replaced. Then, when your electrical equipment is subjected to the heaviest use, it will safely carry the load.

Lastly, during the pleasant weather, homeowners should carry on a rigorous campaign to rid their property of junk. Thousands of fires have originated in attics and cellars and closets filled with old clothes, furniture, magazines, etc. Many fires have resulted from improper storage of paint, gasoline and other inflammables. A clean and orderly house offers fire few opportunities.

FOR THE WHOLE CHILD

The greatest change that has taken place in American schools in the last generation is not in the intellectual content of the curriculum, considerable as that change is. It is, rather, in the emotional and social content, which was considered hardly at all in the days before World War I.

"Personality" is now being stressed as a teaching requirement. This is in sharp contrast to the days when a certain irascibility not only was not held against a teacher, but was considered a definite asset in many schools.

The new way comes closer to fulfilling the meaning of the word "education"—to "draw out" the pupils' potentialities, rather than to beat a few half-comprehended facts into him. That lopsided education turned out too many students who had never learned the most important thing of all—how to live with their fellows.

They hadn't learned it, partly because it hadn't been taught, partly because much of the teaching they got tended to add to their fears, antagonisms, and tendencies to shrink from human contacts.

The aim is to combine the teaching of human relations with other classes rather than to change the curriculum for it. That is a sound idea. It is not good education to teach things like good English, Americanism, and human relations in separate courses and then forget about them. They should be present, if unnoticed, in all courses.

After watching the thermometer day by day, we are convinced that the month of August this year belonged in the gay nineties.

The social lion of 1930 who was a leader in everything now has to content himself leading his wife's pet dog around the block on a leash.

The Chinese Central Government has fixed next year's budget at nine trillion dollars. That ought to make many a New Deal economist turn green with envy.

Congress passed the tax bill and the President blocked it with a veto. Which had the same result as when the Giants and Brooklyn split a double-header.

The French at Lake Success vetoed the proposal to look into the fighting in Indonesia. Don't know why they did it. Perhaps they wanted to show that somebody besides Molotov packs a wicked veto.

State Capitol

Some Doubt Among Legisla-

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Sept. 8.—(INS)—There is some doubt among legislators visiting Capitol Hill whether Gov. James H. Duff will be able to avoid a special session of the General Assembly next year. Inflated costs coupled with the possibility that an economic recession may strike and send relief expenditures soaring were the main reasons prompting the speculation. The $135,000,000 earmarked for relief by the assembly for the 1947-48 biennium would prove inadequate should indigent rolls start to mount. Before World War II got underway in Europe, peak relief expenditure was approximately $20,000,000 while the federal government provided about another third of that amount. The last special session was held in 1944 when Pennsylvania's model soldier ballot law was enacted.

There has been no noticeable increase in the number of lawmakers coming to the capitol even though they voted themselves $100-a-month "expense accounts" to defray the costs of such junkets in the interests of their constituencies. The legislators frequently seen on the hill between sessions continue to appear. The biennial cost of the expense accounts will amount to approximately $310,000 with some additional cost for administration.

The Pennsylvania Police Chiefs Association was scheduled to open a state office in Harrisburg this month to plan improved working conditions for policemen. Samuel B. Siegel, former chief of police in Haverford township, Delaware county, has been named executive director in charge of the office. The plan to open headquarters was approved during the organization's annual convention at Wilkes-Barre.

The appointments of two FBI men as committee chairmen during the convention reportedly have caused considerable grumbling within the police ranks. The federal investigators were L. V. Bordman, chairman of the education committee, and Walter McLaughlin, chairman of public relations. Both are attached to the FBI's Philadelphia office. While local authorities and FBI agents work closely in rooting out crime, police jealously guard against possible intrusions into their field. Some members of the organization felt the FBI men had no business holding offices in their association. Grumbling has been held to private conversations, since police outfits fear possible federal reprisals in the form of refused assistance in handling crime cases.

Gov. James H. Duff reportedly was working on appointments to the newly established public service institute board. The board was created by the legislature during the 1947 session to give the institute greater freedom of action. It is located in the department of public instruction and arranges short courses for local government officials.

Proposes National Lottery To Raise Funds In Nation

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(INS)—Rep. Sabath (D) Ill., proposed a national lottery today as a means of reducing the national debt and of meeting foreign relief needs.

The 8-year-old dean of the House estimated a government sponsored lottery would hit a three billion dollar jackpot for the U. S. treasury. Sabath has urged official sanction for a government lottery frequently during his long tenure in Congress but he declared that there has never been a more appropriate time for legalizing the scheme.

He commented: "With a huge national debt to be reduced and with ever increasing demands being made for U. S. financial assistance abroad, the lottery legislation if enacted now would bring vast new revenues to the treasury."

He estimated the three billion dollar income would be netted for the treasury after reductions for the pay-offs to be made to a series of prize-winning ticket holders.

Expect Peak Of Polio In State
Within 10 Days

HARRISBURG, Sept. 8.—(INS)—The State Health Department today expected the number of infantile paralysis cases to reach a peak of about 300 cases within 10 days.

Compilation of weekend reports was expected to push the 1947 count to more than 200 cases since January 1.

A spokesman pointed out the incidence rate this year was similar to 1946 experience when 287 cases were reported.

There were no indications that the dread disease would approach the proportions of the 1944 epidemic when 1478 persons were stricken, largest number of victims since 1916 when approximately 1800 were afflicted.

The spokesman pointed out that while the statewide outlook was comparatively good, serious outbreaks of poliomyelitis had been reported in Philadelphia, York and Delaware counties.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—(INS)—A nationwide police hunt was in progress today for an 11-year-old Philadelphia girl and her 22-year-old uncle believed hitch-hiking to California.

The child, Isabelle Mallon, a seventh-grade pupil, failed to return home Saturday after shipping in a neighborhood store, according to her father, Bernard M. Mallon.

Mallon told police that the child's uncle George A. Neill, who worked on a farm near Doylestown, had left the house with a suitcase the same day.

Police said Neill's employer had stated the man quit his job on Saturday to "go out west."

Mallon, a hosiery worker, has two other children, Bernard, Jr., 13, and Patricia, three.

VIVIANO-DeANGELIS DATE SEPTEMBER 15

Mrs. Bernard Giancola, of Northview avenue, was hostess, Sunday evening, at a pre-nuptial shower party honoring Miss Mary Viviano, bride elect, who announced her wedding date.

Prizes were distributed for contests enjoyed throughout the evening, and the remainder of the evening was spent informally.

A buffet lunch was served on a nicely arranged table, and a huge cake centered the table with the news, "Mary-Johnny, September 15, 1947."

Mrs. Andrew DeAngelis assisted her daughter in serving, and also Rose Viviano was an aide.

The honoree was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts in remembrance of the occasion.

Miss Viviano, daughter of Mrs. Teresa Viviano, of 301 South Jefferson street, will become the bride of John DeAngelis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew DeAngelis, 119 Center street.

The ceremony will be at 10 a. m. in St. Joseph's church, on Monday, September 15.

Good News For Folks Who Suffer From

✓ STOMACH GAS
✓ SOUR FOOD TASTE
✓ ACID INDIGESTION

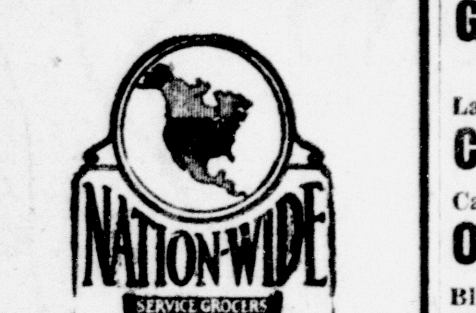

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief from this nervous distress.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

ATTISANO-CRANGI WEDDING IN CHURCH

One of the loveliest of late summer weddings was solemnized in Holy Cross church, West Pittsburg, Saturday morning, uniting in marriage, Miss Mary Ann Attisano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Attisano, of Thirteenth street, and Benjamin A. Crangi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Crangi, of Thirteenth street.

Vows were exchanged by the young couple at 9:30 a. m. Rev. Fr. Beck officiating, and using the double ring ceremony. Appropriate nuptial organ music was provided during and preceding the ceremony by Mrs. Mary Sparr.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white satin gown with yoke exquisitely embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. Her long gloves were tapered at the ends with a similar embroidered design as her gown, and her bustle tapered into a point, ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil trimmed with lace, fell from a tiara, and she carried Johanna Hill roses centered with an orchid. As her only jewelry she wore a rhinestone necklace and wrist watch, gifts from the bridegroom.

Miss Virginia Papa, as maid of honor wore a yellow-over-her taffeta gown, with yellow roses in her hair. She carried white mums and yellow roses.

Bridesmaids, Mary Gappott, Clara Cowher, Esther Tumminella, Marie Sainato, Agatha Zappia, wore gowns of various summer shades, and wore tiaras in their hair. They carried bouquets of tea roses and mums.

Larry Attisano, brother of the bridegroom served as best man, and ushers were John Crangi, Anthony DiBisio, Larry Attisano, Jack Camerrot and Carl Kos.

Supplementing the ceremony, a breakfast for 75 guests was served at the Diaz club, followed by the wedding dinner for 150 guests. In the evening, the reception was held for friends and relatives, and approximately 500 were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Crangi departed on a wedding trip to Florida, and upon their return will reside in their newly furnished apartment on Ninth street. Mrs. Crangi, is a graduate of June class '44. Mr. Crangi, served 38 months in the service, and is employed at the Sharon Steel company, Lowellville.

Sunday School Convention Held At Plaingrove

Sessions Largely Attended; New Officers Are Named For Ensuing Year

Good attendance interest, and an inspiring program greeted those who attended the annual convention of Plaingrove district of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association, which was held at the Plaingrove United Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon and evening, September 7.

The message of the evening session was delivered by Rev. John M. Fife, minister of the Westfield Presbyterian church, and Winifred Harlan brought the message at the afternoon session. The theme of the convention was "Christ for Youth—Youth for Christ". The place for next year's convention is the Harlanburg Presbyterian church, and C. Howard Pisor was elected to represent Plaingrove district on next year's county nominating committee.

The devotionals at the afternoon session were in charge of Mary Lou Kildoo, and a report from the international convention at Des Moines, Iowa, was given by Mrs. H. P. Barber. A violin solo was rendered by Marian Suenzo, who was accompanied by Margaret Macri, Hillsville. The Duffie Bag project was presented and every Sunday school in the district agreed to fill one or more duffie bags. Mrs. H. P. Magill, the county secretary, spoke on the value of the home department and missionary projects. The closing prayer was by Rev. M. G. Munn.

The retiring president, Willis S. Kneram, presided at the evening session, and Dorothea McKissick, president of the Young People's Council, had charge of the opening devotionals. A solo was rendered by Lillian Brown with Betty Dolan as accompanist. The song service was in charge of S. A. Eakin.

Special instrumental music by Plaingrove district was furnished by quartet composed of Nathan Offutt, S. A. Eakin, Jessie Mae McCracken, Willis S. Kneram with Mrs. S. A. Eakin as accompanist.

The roll call of Sunday schools of the district was taken, and every Sunday school had delegates, the Plaingrove Presbyterian having the largest number. The newly elected president, Edwin Gardner, made brief remarks. The benediction was by Rev. Fred Cochran.

The newly elected officers installed at the evening session by the county president, Robert M. Strickler Jr., were as follows: President, Thomas Crawford; secretary, Elizabeth Fleming; and treasurer, Russell McClelland. Departmental superintendents: children's, Mary E. Burns; Young People, Estella Adams; Associate Young People, Shirley McCombs; Adult, James Shaw; Christian Education, J. E. Stoughton; Parent Training, Sarah Brown; Teacher Training, Mrs. Mary Kate Sonntag; home department, Mrs. Alice McKissick; temperance, Mrs. Martha McCombs; administrative, Mrs. Chester Hunt; missions, Mrs. Nellie McNulty; associate missions, Clyde McCombs and evangelism, S. A. Eakin.

Casualties In Marine Disaster Have Risen To 70

RIO DE JANEIRO, Sept. 8.—(INS) The Brazilian newspaper O Globo reported today that the toll of last night's marine accident in Guanabara Bay, in which a ferry boat crushed a passenger launch—has risen to 70 dead or injured.

According to the paper, rescue squads already have recovered 15 bodies. Fifty-five other persons were injured. There were 105 passengers aboard the launch when the accident occurred.

The accident occurred yesterday when a ferry boat crushed and sank a passenger launch not far from where the American presidential "yacht"—the U. S. S. Missouri—was anchored during President Truman's visit to Brazil.

Meeting Of Gaston Post Is Postponed Until Thursday Eve

Nomination Of Officers Scheduled To Take Place At Meeting This Week

Announcement was made today by Commander E. Gene Schweinsberg of Perry S. Gaston post, American Legion, that the regularly scheduled meeting for Tuesday evening has been postponed until Thursday evening by action of the executive committee.

The postponement was made because of the fact that many of the officers and members would be tied up because of the primary election Tuesday evening.

Nomination of officers for the coming year will be the principal item of business to be discussed.

WILD BULLET

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—(INS) A bullet fired to halt an alleged automobile theft smashed through the window of a seven-year-old girl's bedroom today and struck her in the arm.

Police said the shot was fired by Raymond Canizzo, 55, operator of a limousine rental business. A navy enlisted man identified as Edwin H. Wilks, 27, was arrested and charged with attempted theft of an automobile and drunkenness.

Canizzo was held for reckless use of firearms after the wounding of Georgene Randolph, the little girl, was discovered.

According to police, Canizzo fired several shots to keep the suspect from driving away in one of his vehicles.

The girl was not seriously wounded.

Wednesday Evening At First Methodist Church

An unusual musical program will be presented Wednesday evening, in the auditorium of the First Methodist church, North Jefferson at North street when famous radio personalities from New York City, will be present to put on a concert at 8 o'clock.

The nationally known singers, the Larkin Sisters, who appeared with Rainbow House, the Arthur Godfrey Show, Richard Maxwell's "Hymns You Love," and Mildred Young of the New York Opera Company, will be heard in an outstanding musical program, which will attract a large audience to the church.

In cooperation with the Moody Men's Bible Class and the First Methodist church, the program will be in-duced by A. E. Withrow, popular speaker and former army captain. The program is being presented in the interest of the Veterans' Hospital Program. The free will offering will be used to provide radios and entertainment for veterans in hospitals.

Two Killed As Jeep And Auto Are In Collision

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 8.—(INS)—Four persons remained in serious condition in a Pittsburgh hospital of injuries suffered Sunday when a jeep and an automobile collided, killing two others.

Edward L. McCabe, 19, was decapitated, and Thomas J. Conlon, 18, died of a skull fracture. Both were of Pittsburgh. Police said McCabe driving the jeep, in which eight youths were riding, when it sideswiped the car of Steve Clynosky, 22, of Springdale.

In addition to the four seriously hurt, three others suffered minor injuries.

Engraving on glassware is done by cutting out a pattern by hand by means of small revolving wheels.

Garden Notes

This month you can set out plants of hellebores, both the Christmas rose types and the early blooming Lenten lilies. They should be planted in a protected corner with lots of shade.

Fertile peonies with a handful of bonemeal and wood ashes about each plant. Keep dahlias, roses and chrysanthemums well watered if the weather is dry.

Spring sown herbaceous plants may now be placed permanently in the flower borders if they are thrifty.

The more ripe squashes and pumpkins are when harvested, the better they will keep in storage. A covering—straw or burlaps—should be kept handy to protect these vegetables from early frost while they ripen.

Remember that most of the very large modern delphiniums act more or less as biennials and should be renewed from seed often.

Lawns should be kept mowed as long as they continue to grow vigorously. Sodding may still be done, but should not be delayed much later if the grass is to become well established before cold weather.

COMPARISON

A good-sized thunderstorm could be produced from the electrical current used by a washing machine doing an ordinary week's wash. Each lightning flash represents enormous power, but its energy is small because of its brief existence.

Continue Probe In Woman's Death At McKeesport

McKEESPORT, Pa., Sept. 8.—(INS)—Police today continued to question friends and acquaintances of Julia Ann Fesko, 22, of McKeesport, whose nude body was found last Monday, but they admitted that so far their investigation had reached nothing but a dead end.

One of Miss Fesko's co-workers in the Westinghouse Airbrake plant at Wildmerding was held for two days by county detectives for questioning, but was released over the weekend.

Today the officers questioned girl friends of Miss Fesko in an effort to learn the identity of her men friends.

Her body, a bullet hole through the head, was found near McKeesport, and at first was identified as that of Betty Jane Jacobel, 14, also of McKeesport.

Halt Invasion Of Cooking Classes

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 8.—(INS)—Lancaster high school officials today halted a large-scale invasion of boys into cooking classes.

School authorities acted after more than 70 boys registered for the course in addition to 20 others who had completed elementary cooking last year. Limited facilities, officials said, would permit only second year boys to register under a priority system favoring girl classmates.

Memphis Beauty Is Miss America

Barbara Jo Walker Crowned
1947 Queen At Atlantic
City On Sunday

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 8.—Barbara Jo Walker, 21, of Memphis, Tenn., today reigns as 1947's "Miss America".

Miss Walker who is five feet, seven inches tall, and a striking brunette, gets a $5,000 scholarship to any school of her choice. The southern belle hopes to finish at Memphis State and then teach languages at a college.

The new queen has hazel eyes weighs 130 pounds, bust 34 inches and was selected from 54 girls representing 39 states, 14 cities and Canada.

When told she was the new "Miss America", the Tennessee beauty said: "I can't believe it. I wish my family was here."

Her father, Robert H. Walker, has a dental laboratory in Memphis. She succeeds Marilyn Buford of Los Angeles, who took the honors in 1946.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Helen Keating of North Ray street, is visiting relatives in Detroit, Mich.

GAS IN SILO CAN CAUSE ACCIDENTS

Because of possible danger to human life from gas forming in silos from the fermentation processes, farmers are urged to exercise caution on entering silos during and shortly after filling them.

Carbon dioxide gas forms in silos as a result of the fermentation of the ensiled material. This gas is formed in the largest quantities during the first few days after ensiling, and may accumulate in sufficient quantities to prove fatal to persons entering the silo at this time.

The following safety precautions are suggested: first, do not have the doors in place higher than the silage. The poisonous gas is heavier than air and tends to drain out if doors are open on a level with the top of the silage.

Second, if the cutter is in place to refill after standing for a few hours or longer, be sure to start the blower to force fresh air into the silo.

SEASON LUMBER FOR FARM USES

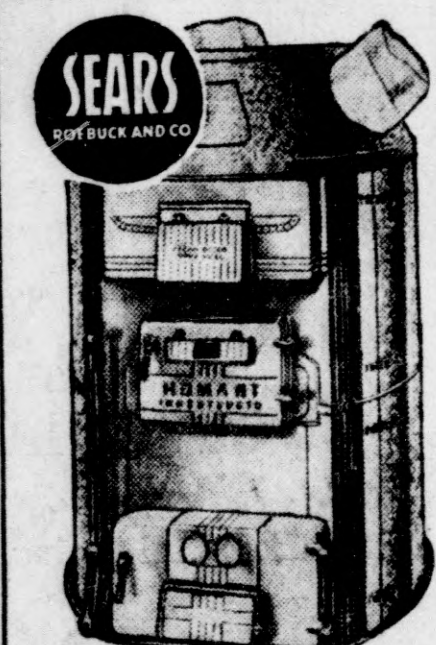

The next few months will be ideal for air-seasoning of lumber, and its proper handling will pay dividends whether it is to be used for repairs or new construction.

Stack the lumber in the conventional way, to allow circulation of air. Foundation should be substantial, and sufficient stickers placed between layers to prevent warping.

A roof over the lumber pile is necessary to keep the sun rays off the top layers and to keep out rainfall or snow.

Lumber seasoned for 3 or 4 months may be considered fairly dry, but it will still shrink if used in dry places. The best woods for enclosures are pines, hemlock, and poplar.

Refugees Are Disembarked

Fifteen Hundred Are Unloaded At Hamburg From British Ship

HAMBURG, Sept. 8.—(INS)—The 1,500 Jewish refugees aboard the British transport Ocean Visor were disembarked in three hours and 15 minutes today despite bitter last-ditch resistance by a die-hard group in the hold.

(Reuters estimated that one in ten of the refugees had to be carried, kicking and shouting, to the rains.

(The Jews shouted, "Off to the new new Buchenwald" and "you are the new Nazis.")

Midway through the disembarkation British troops equipped with tear gas raced up the gangplank.

Battle Is Quelled

They followed 200 MP's and squads of paratroopers of ten to fifteen men each who were hastily summoned to the refugee ship.

The resistance was quickly quelled in a battle hidden from the sight of newsmen on the dock.

One by one, the struggling Jews were carried down the gangplank, kicking and shouting and tearing at the uniforms of the troops.

The last hundred refugees landed peacefully. Haggard from their embittered 59 days at sea, they walked slowly down the gangplank carrying bags and motley belongings.

The first of two trains carrying the refugees to Lubeck for internment on hated German soil left Hamburg at 10:07 a. m. with about 600 aboard.

Twelve Arrested In Alleged Plot Against Britain

PARIS, Sept. 8.—(INS)—Twelve persons—including Rabbi Baruch Korff of New York—were charged officially today with operations damaging to French public interests, in connection with an alleged Jewish plot to stage "reprisal" air raids on London.

The 12—including four women—were accused under a law of June 24, 1939, providing for possible sentences of six months to five years upon conviction.

French security police, meanwhile, searched for a cache of explosives which the alleged plotters were suspected of having.

Operatives of the Surete National—French counterpart of the American FBI—developed their investigation of the fantastic plot rapidly, though police admitted they had not yet uncovered specific information to support rumors that the conspirators actually intended to "bomb" London.

Frauds Charged In Settlement Of U.S. War Contracts

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(INS)—Rep. Bender (R) Ohio, declared today that frauds and over-payments in the settlement of war contracts have cost the government at least "several hundred million dollars."

Bender's statement was made on the eve of public hearings which open tomorrow before a House Executive Expenditures subcommittee headed by Bender. The group is investigating war contracts.

The representative pointed out that an audit by the government's accounting office covering one and one-half per cent of the 318,000 contracts terminated with the end of World War II disclosed six million dollars in frauds and over-payments to contractors.

Honor Railroaders
On Their Retirement

R. E. O'Donnell, Samuel Fitzgerald,
Gerald Wiler Honored By
Penna. Railroad Men

On Saturday evening, in Columbus hall, a group of railroad men numbering about 130 gathered, including enginehouse and car shops employees, and some of the local officials of the Penna. railroad.

The occasion was in honor of R. E. O'Donnell of 708 North Ashland avenue, retiring engine-house foreman of approximately 50 years service; Samuel Fitzgerald of 224 Fairmont avenue, engine-house carpenter, after about 38 years service; and George H. Wiler, formerly of 110 East Clayton street, recently moved to Erie, a car repairman, who has a service of about 34 years with the railroad.

Joseph P. Grimm of State road, P. R. R. boilermaker, was chairman of the evening, who introduced Ed M. Fisher of East Washington street, assistant road foreman of engines, as toastmaster of the evening.

The following were called upon, who made short addresses touching upon the splendid service rendered by the honored guests: Mr. Garrett, master mechanic E. & A. and Lake division; A. R. Marsh, assistant master mechanic E. & A. division; W. H. Outcalt, road foreman of engines; Stanley Morosky, engine-house foreman, Youngstown; J. W. H. Miles, Ashtabula, engine-house foreman; B. J. Martin, acting engine-house foreman; Walter Street, assistant; P. J. McDowell, Angelo Russo, Sylvester Zarilla, Mr. Buckley and Fred Moser, foremen.

The chairman by request read a poem built around the retiring men's working record.

Each honored guest received a splendid gift, and a floral bouquet each, two from the car shops and the other from the girls of the round-house. The guests' wives also received a bouquet at their homes.

The round-house girls prepared and served a splendid lunch.

Bugbee of Mahoning Methodist church, who has returned from Erie Methodist conference concluding Sunday evening, he has been assigned to the pastorate of the Methodist church at Westfield, N. Y., on Lake Erie. He will take up his first Sunday service there on September 14.

Rev. Bugbee's successor will be Rev. John L. Petrie who has been pastor of the Mayville, N. Y., church and will take up the pastorate here Sunday, September 14.

Rev. Petrie was formerly pastor of Grace Methodist church here, before its merging with Epworth Methodist church. Rev. Bugbee served as pastor at the local church for five years, coming here from Chautauqua, N. Y.

MEETING POSTPONED
Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Mahoning Methodist church scheduled to meet Tuesday evening, have postponed their meeting until Tuesday evening, October 7.

Wants Congress Called To Plan For Re-Arming Of Nation
At Once

CLEVELAND, Sept. 8.—(INS)—The 48th annual Encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars became increasingly militant today with one plea already made for a special Congressional session to re-arm the country and another call expected.

Louis E. Starr, of Portland, Ore., who will retire tomorrow as commander in chief of the VFW, sounded the first request last night in a Mutual Broadcasting System address from Cleveland, where the veterans are holding their convention.

The organization's National Security Committee worked through yesterday to prepare a four-point program for presentation to delegates attending the six-day meeting.

Ask Congress Session
Committee Chairman Charles C. Ralls of Washington said the program would request an extraordinary session of Congress to take action on the following issues:

1. Adoption of Universal Military Training.
 2. Setting up a plan for the mobilization of manpower, industry and finance to function in case of national emergency.
 3. Return of the control of atomic energy to the military with the prohibition against sharing information with any other nation whatsoever.
 4. Immediate implication of the National Science Research Foundation.
- Retiring Commander Starr told the nation in his radio speech: "I publicly request that the President of the United States call a special session of Congress for the purpose of immediately considering and granting sufficient appropriations to rebuild our armed forces, and particularly our air force, and to mobilize our aircraft industry, rearing it to high speed production of the latest type military aircraft, to the realization of this aim."

Clamps Lid On Public Criticism Of New Labor Law

Secretary Of Labor Schwelbenbach Silences Criticism Of Aides And Subordinates

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(INS)—Labor department sources disclosed today that Secretary of Labor Schwelbenbach has clamped a tight lid on public criticism of the new Taft-Hartley labor law.

The secretary has forbidden his aides and subordinates to attack the new labor statute and he himself will adhere to the same policy in public pronouncements.

Schwelbenbach planned several speeches in the next few weeks but he will shun comment on the issue of labor legislation. The secretary will deliver an address within the next week or so on the West Coast; he is scheduled to speak in New York October 9, and he may also address the AFL and CIO conventions.

The ban on public criticism of the Taft-Hartley statute also will apply to Undersecretary David Morse and Assistant Secretaries John W. Gibson and Philip Hannah. Gibson recently spoke before the national convention of the CIO Oil Workers Union, but confined his remarks primarily to the need for strengthening the Labor department and restoring some of its functions cut by the last Congress.

Steals One Purse; Misses Another

A youth, about 12, snatched the purse, containing $4, from Mrs. John Butz of the Guerard apartments, North Mill street, in North Mill street at 2:25 p. m. Sunday, and at 8:15 p. m. attempted to steal the purse of Mrs. O. McCullough, 31½ North Mill street, in Sycamore Way, according to reports made to police Sunday.

The boy wore a blue shirt, black trousers and had black hair, cut short.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 8.—It was a bright-eyed Rita Hayworth who reported at Columbia today to begin preliminary work on a new picture, Rita's just back from a five-months' tour of Europe where she did everything she could to boost her latest picture, "Down To Earth."

Maria Montez sails from Europe Oct. 17 to start "Queens of Hearts" for Sermour Nebenzel and Charles Rogers. The last we heard of Marie, she and her hubby, Jean Pierre Aumont, had been visiting Nice and Cannes. Pierre won't return with her. He has a picture commitment in Paris. He isn't expected back in Hollywood until Jan. 1.

Ingrid Scheduled

Ingrid Bergman's "Joan of Arc" finally will go before the cameras Sept. 21, just a month later. After a five-month vacation, her longest in five years, Barbara Stanwyck is scheduled to begin work in M-G-M's "The Daughter Next Friday."

Dale Evans has just completed her fifth song, a Western ditty titled "His Hat Costs More Than Mine." She can turn to song writing for a living if ever she wants to abandon her screen career. Incidentally, Dale has been awakened four times at the crack of dawn in the past few weeks by fans who want to give her presents. She's appreciative, but—

Don Barry, who made headlines recently with his gifts of gems to Joan Crawford, later returned, will have a chance to replenish his stock in his next Republican picture, "Slippy McGee." He plays a safecracker.

Maize Through

When we wrote the other day about Marie McDonald's pending marriage to Harry Karl, we forgot to mention "The Body's" engagement ring. It is almost as big as an auto reflector. Marie, insisted, however, it is only 8 carats.

Ann Southern, now playing in "April Showers" at Warners, says definitely and positively she will never make another Maize picture. She said she's made eight of them and that's enough. She doesn't want to get typed in the role.

Wayne Returning

After almost a year John Wayne is returning to Republic, his home studio, to do two films in a row. His first will be "Wake the Red Witch," which Edmund Grainger will produce. John will both produce and star in his second, "Eagles in Exile." His first production, "Angel and the Badman," made a mint of money.

Roy Rogers has bought 382 acres of land 55 miles from Hollywood and is moving with his three children to the wide open spaces. He'll raise some more little Triggers to sell.

Jan Johannes Vermeer (1632-75) was one of the foremost of Dutch genre and landscape painters. He was born in Delft and spent his whole life there. He sold only a few pictures in his lifetime, and received inconsiderable sums for them, dying insolvent. He is the most modern of genre Dutch painters and is consequently the most appreciated at the present time.

Two provinces of Chile produced 95 per cent of the world's nitrate supply until the process of obtaining nitrate from the air was made commercially profitable.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC

The past four years I have been one of your Commissioners. I am not a candidate for any office. It has been stated, and is a fact, that there are three commissioners who are delegated to administer the affairs of the County, however it only requires a majority, or two Commissioners, to approve any motion, pay any bill, or let any contract.

Shortly after I was appointed, the Chairman of the board presented me with the budget figures for the year of 1944, and stated that the tax millage, which at the time was two and a half mills, was not sufficient, and it would be necessary to raise the millage in 1944 to meet expenses. At this time there was a surplus of approximately $176,000 in the General Fund. Not being politically minded, I could see no justification to increase the millage, and so made a motion for no increase. The final results were a surplus at the end of the year of 1944 of approximately $166,000 with no increase in millage.

That was my last and only victory, for shortly after this episode I found occasion to question the administration of the County Home, Mr. Travers' department. The result of this was a two-man alliance against which I, in minority, was discounted and powerless.

This is not an endorsement of any candidate, nor was it written in behalf of any candidate. There has been so much said in the last few days that concerns me as one of the Commissioners that I have no alternative but to let the public know just where I stand. I do not wish to receive credit or be condemned for something I have not earned, or deserved.

KARL T. ROHRER,
County Commissioner.

Probe Mystery In Finding Of Body At San Francisco

Body Of Man With Throat Slashed Found In San Francisco Bay

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 8.—(INS)—Investigators pieced scant clues together today in an effort to solve the mystery that rose out of San Francisco Bay with discovery of the body of a man whose throat had been slashed.

Murder—possibly of underworld design—was the theory advanced by authorities. But the possibility of a bizarre suicide at the water's edge was not ruled out.

What made the mystery all the more intriguing was the fact that the man appeared to have been from the East and that he was fashionably attired in expensive clothes. He was between 30 and 35.

The body was found yesterday.

floating 200 yards off the Oakland pier of the Western Pacific railroad.

A thin, winding trail of clues led to San Francisco Whitcomb Hotel, on the opposite side of the bay. There it was learned the man had checked in on Labor Day. He had registered as J. P. Brown of 121 Clinton street, Newark, N. J. Inquiry brought the response that no J. P. Brown was known at that address in the New Jersey city.

The investigators conjectured, from the wounds, that a sharp instrument had been used. Oakland Police Inspector Harold Richardson said: "His throat was slashed twice with a knife or razor. You could see where one cut ended and another began. There was a third minor cut near his ear. The inspector said he believed the man was murdered.

Lady Anne Barnard was the author of the ballad, "Auld Robin Gray." She was born in Fifeshire, Scotland, in 1750, the oldest daughter of James Lindsay, Earl of Balcarres. In 1793 she married Andrew Barnard, son of the bishop of Limerick and secretary to Lord Macartney at the Cape of Good Hope, where she lived until the death of her husband, when she returned to London where she died in 1825.

Rev. C. A. Underwood Speaks Sunday At New Bedford Church

Choosing as his text, "Lovest Thou Me?" Rev. Charles A. Underwood, S. T. D., delivered his first sermon Sunday as pastor of the Hopewell Presbyterian church in New Bedford. A large audience was in attendance.

Rev. Underwood came to the New Bedford church from the Memorial Presbyterian church of Lancaster Pa. where he served as pastor for 12½ years.

Plans are underway by the congregation for a reception to be held in honor of the pastor and Mrs. Underwood. A program of installation will be set up by the Shenango Presbytery in their meeting at Sharpsville Tuesday.

Bamian was once a famous town and valley of Afghanistan. The valley is at an elevation of 8,495 feet, and is the only known pass over the Hindu-Kush, 40 miles north of the ruins of Bamian, for artillery and military transport. Alexander the Great is believed to have followed this route in his conquests in western Asia.

N. Beaver Twp. Vol. Fire Dept. Question

At Primary Election, Sept. 9, 1947

Do you favor the North Beaver Township Supervisors appropriating money to the North Beaver Township Volunteer Fire Department for the purchase and maintenance of fire apparatus, and fire houses and the levy of additional tax to pay for the same.

1. This amount can never exceed two mills tax in any one year.
2. It is the intention of the firemen to ask for ½ mill or approximately $750 per year.
3. Groups to remain volunteer and to raise additional funds through social activities. No paid members.
4. The purpose of this request is to assist in the cost of erection of a heater building to house the fire equipment.

Your vote in this matter will be appreciated.

Chairman, J. Whan Hopper

DOLLARS and SENSEHOW TO BORROW*AT HOUSEHOLD

3 simple steps can get you the money you need at Household.

One: Phone or visit Household.Two: Decide how much money you need and how long you want to take to repay.Three: As soon as your application is approved—THE MONEY IS YOURS.

Household lends $50, $100, $200 to $1500 to single men and women or married couples. Loans are made on salary, car or furniture.

No endorsers needed

No endorsers or signatures of outsiders needed. And, you may take 12, 15 or more months to repay, depending on the purpose of your loan. Household's charge on loans to $300 is substantially less than the lawful maximum.

So for the money you need to pay overdue bills or any emergency expense—phone or come in today.

Pirates Recall Four, Buy One

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 8.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Pirates today recalled four players from their Indianapolis farm of the American Association when that club failed to reach the league playoffs.

They are pitchers Steve Nagy and Lee Howard, catcher Leroy Jarvis, and second baseman Gene Mauch. In addition, they purchased second baseman Pete Castiglione from the Indians.

All five will report to the Pirates Tuesday.

Studies of animals indicate that the greater their mental capacities the more sleep they require.

Picnic Sunday At Rock Springs

Rock Springs Park was the scene of the annual picnic of Local 261, International Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers Sunday afternoon September 7. Members from Lawrence, Butler and Beaver Counties were present with their families. In addition there were many invited guests, including city and county officials.

The picnic was in charge of President Albert Mascaro and Secretary-Treasurer Joseph Ridge. A special guest was the international representative of the union, Albert Dietrich of Pittsburgh.

The day was an informal one with no speeches. There was a program of races both for youngsters and adults, free pop and hot dogs and a basket dinner.

U. P. Prayer Group Assembly Tuesday

Women of the U. P. churches of New Castle and vicinity will assemble for their initial session of the fall season at Bethel U. P. church Tuesday morning, September 9, at 10:30 o'clock.

Using "Christian Education" as her theme, Mrs. Glenn Orr, of the Third church, will be the leader. Prayer items will be given by Mrs. E. E. Bradley, of the Mt. Jackson church.

Everything for the sportsman.
